BIO.TXT

Saphi doesn't just play a set; she builds a world from scratch. A multi-instrumentalist powerhouse, Saphi's live show is a masterclass in controlled chaos. Armed with a guitar, bass, synths, and a drum pad, she weaves intricate layers of electronic pop in real-time, turning the stage into a high-voltage laboratory.

Influenced by the psych-grooves of Tame Impala and the gritty, dance-floor hedonism of the Fcuckers, Saphi's sound is a fusion of chic production and raw, cathartic performance.

It's music for the "main character" moments—where introspective songwriting meets a massive party vibe. Whether it's the pulse of the daily grind or the peak of a 2:00 AM strobe-lit floor, Saphi is the soundtrack.
